Your artwork will be listed at registration and assigned a number for the review by judges. An adult can help with sizing and posting art to the poster board. Directions must be carefully followed to avoid disqualification of art.

T-SHIRT DESIGN JURYING PROCEDURES

The entry guidelines and instructions are very important to follow to make sure your artwork is included in the jurying procedures. The juror's major focus is the artwork of each youth and no jury is aware of any youth names or church affiliation. The important concerns of the jurors are how committed is the work of art by youth? Did the youth artists use 3-4 colors? How well does the work of art express the theme and scripture? How clear and easy to read is the writing or text in the artwork? These are a few examples of how carefully the jurors are reviewing the works of art. The Convention Bag is a visual ministry that is seen by many people and hundreds of Bags are printed to make the message known by our Youth at the Primitive Baptist State Convention.
